Welcome Message from The Committee of ISSE 2018

Assalamu'alaikum Wr. Wb.

I would like to extend my gratitude to distinguished guests from abroad. First of all, please allow me to express my sincere appreciation for keynote speakers Prof. Vaile Dawson from The University of Western Australia, Prof. Dr. Özgül Yılmaz Tüzün from Middle East Technical University Turkey, Prof. Hsin-Kai Wu from National Taiwan Normal University, and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Mohd. Ali Samsudin from University Sains Malaysia for coming to our campus. I hope "The 5th international seminar on science education (ISSE 2019) will serve as a catalyst for strengthening international cooperation on the science education.

I encourage all of students to actively participate in the discussions of international seminar on science education and hope the Conference can provide a good platform in the exchange the information of development and innovation as well as new collaborations between scholars, academics, scientists and practitioners. I would also like to give my appreciation and thank you to the conference organizers, all of reviewers, as well as the authors for their contribution for making the successful of the event of ISSE 2019.

I also greatly acknowledge our publishing partner, IOP Publishing, for their collaborative support in publishing the conference proceedings. Lastly, let me express my deepest gratitude and highest appreciation for all committee members, both steering committee and local committee who have been working really hard to make this great event happened. Enjoy the conference, enjoy the city of Yogyakarta. Have some insightful discussions, have some meaningful conversations, have more academic connections, and finally, have a great time. Wassalamualaikum Wr. Wb.
